FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Temporary Closure of I-5 Rest Area

REDDING – The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) will temporarily close the northbound Corning Safety Roadside Rest Area on Interstate 5, three miles north of Corning in Tehama County. The closure will be in effect March 3, 2004.

The closure of the rest area is necessary so that Caltrans Maintenance Landscape crews out of Red Bluff can replace a septic system pump. The next available northbound rest area is the Herbert S. Miles Safety Roadside Rest Area six miles north of Red Bluff. The southbound Herbert S. Miles rest area will remain closed until mid-March due to repairs to an electrical box, which was hit by a runaway commercial truck in February.
